CONSENT MOTION TO EXTEND RESPONSE FILING TIME
BY ONE BUSINESS DAY

Troy Skinner, through counsel, moves the Court to extend the current deadline to file responses to the government’s sentencing pleadings by one business day. In support of this motion, Mr. Skinner states the following:

1. Due to an illness, the government needed a short extension to file its sentencing pleadings in this case. See ECF No. 143. The defense did not object, and the Court granted that extension. See ECF No. 146. The government filed its sentencing pleadings on February 1, 2022. See ECF Nos. 150 and 151.
2. The sentencing guideline order in this case gave the parties seven days to respond to sentencing pleadings. See ECF No. 134 at 2. Mr. Skinner’s responses to the government’s sentencing pleadings are currently due today, February 4, 2022—three days after the government filed the pleadings. See ECF No. 146. Since the government filed its sentencing pleadings, undersigned counsel has been in several lengthy court hearings, met with a number of clients in time-sensitive matters in other cases, and participated in two presentence report interviews with clients. She, thus, needs a short amount of additional time to file responses to the government’s sentencing pleadings.

3. Undersigned counsel has discussed this request with the government, represented here by Brian Hood. Mr. Hood has no objection to this request.

Thus, as set forth above, Mr. Skinner moves the Court to extend the current deadline to file responses to the government's sentencing pleadings by one business day to Monday, February 7, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,
TROY GEORGE SKINNER
